

CITY OF LYNDON
CAUCUS MEETING MINUTES
MONDAY, FEBRUARY 18, 2019

The Caucus Meeting was called to order by Mayor Brent Hagan at 6:11 p.m. Those present: Susan Barto, Betsy Kramer, Kelly Kramer, Carla Nalley, Becky Ricketts, Mardy Sidebottom Amy Stuber and City Attorney John Singler. Guests were also present.

Mayor Hagan introduced Stephanie Horne. She is running for Lt. Governor with Rocky Adkins for Governor. She asked for votes in May Primary Election. She spoke about what issues were important to her after Ms. Ricketts inquired about her decision to run with Adkins.

The Mayor explained details of a revised development plan recommended to Lyndon for approval at 8002 New LaGrange Rd. that will be on the agenda for action. He also mentioned a few upcoming events. The date for Easter Egg Hunt will be April 20th instead of the 13th due to Thunder of Louisville. Since the event is continuing to grow and with Lyndon Christian Church partnership, it will take place at Robsion Park. More details were discussed. Shakespeare in the Park and Arbor Day is the following week. Bob Ray Co. has volunteered to partner with the city for the Arbor Day event to attract interest of community.

Millie King, Wood Rd. resident, inquired about car break-ins. The Mayor explained they are happening everywhere, usually with opportunity of unlocked cars. Ms. King later thanked City for getting leaves cleaned up next door to her house. Kelly Kramer pointed out graffiti near the beautification at New LaGrange and Lyndon and Amy Stuber mentioned some under bridge near Romara. Mayor said we will get those areas taken care of.

Ed Haines, resident of Autumn Ridge, offered information on a neighborhood meeting that may be of interested to citizens regarding the insurance tax proposal. Metro Council, District 7 is holding meeting on Saturday at 10 a.m. at St. Matthews Community Center.

Meeting was adjourned at 6:29 p.m.

Brent Hagan, Mayor
